

Traffic Volumes

By the year 2047, forecasted traffic will nearly double on portions of SH 16.

Existing Travel Times During Peak Periods

AM Peak Period (6 a.m. to 9 a.m.)

- Southbound SH 16 is the peak traffic direction
- Highest congestion observed from 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. (peak hour)

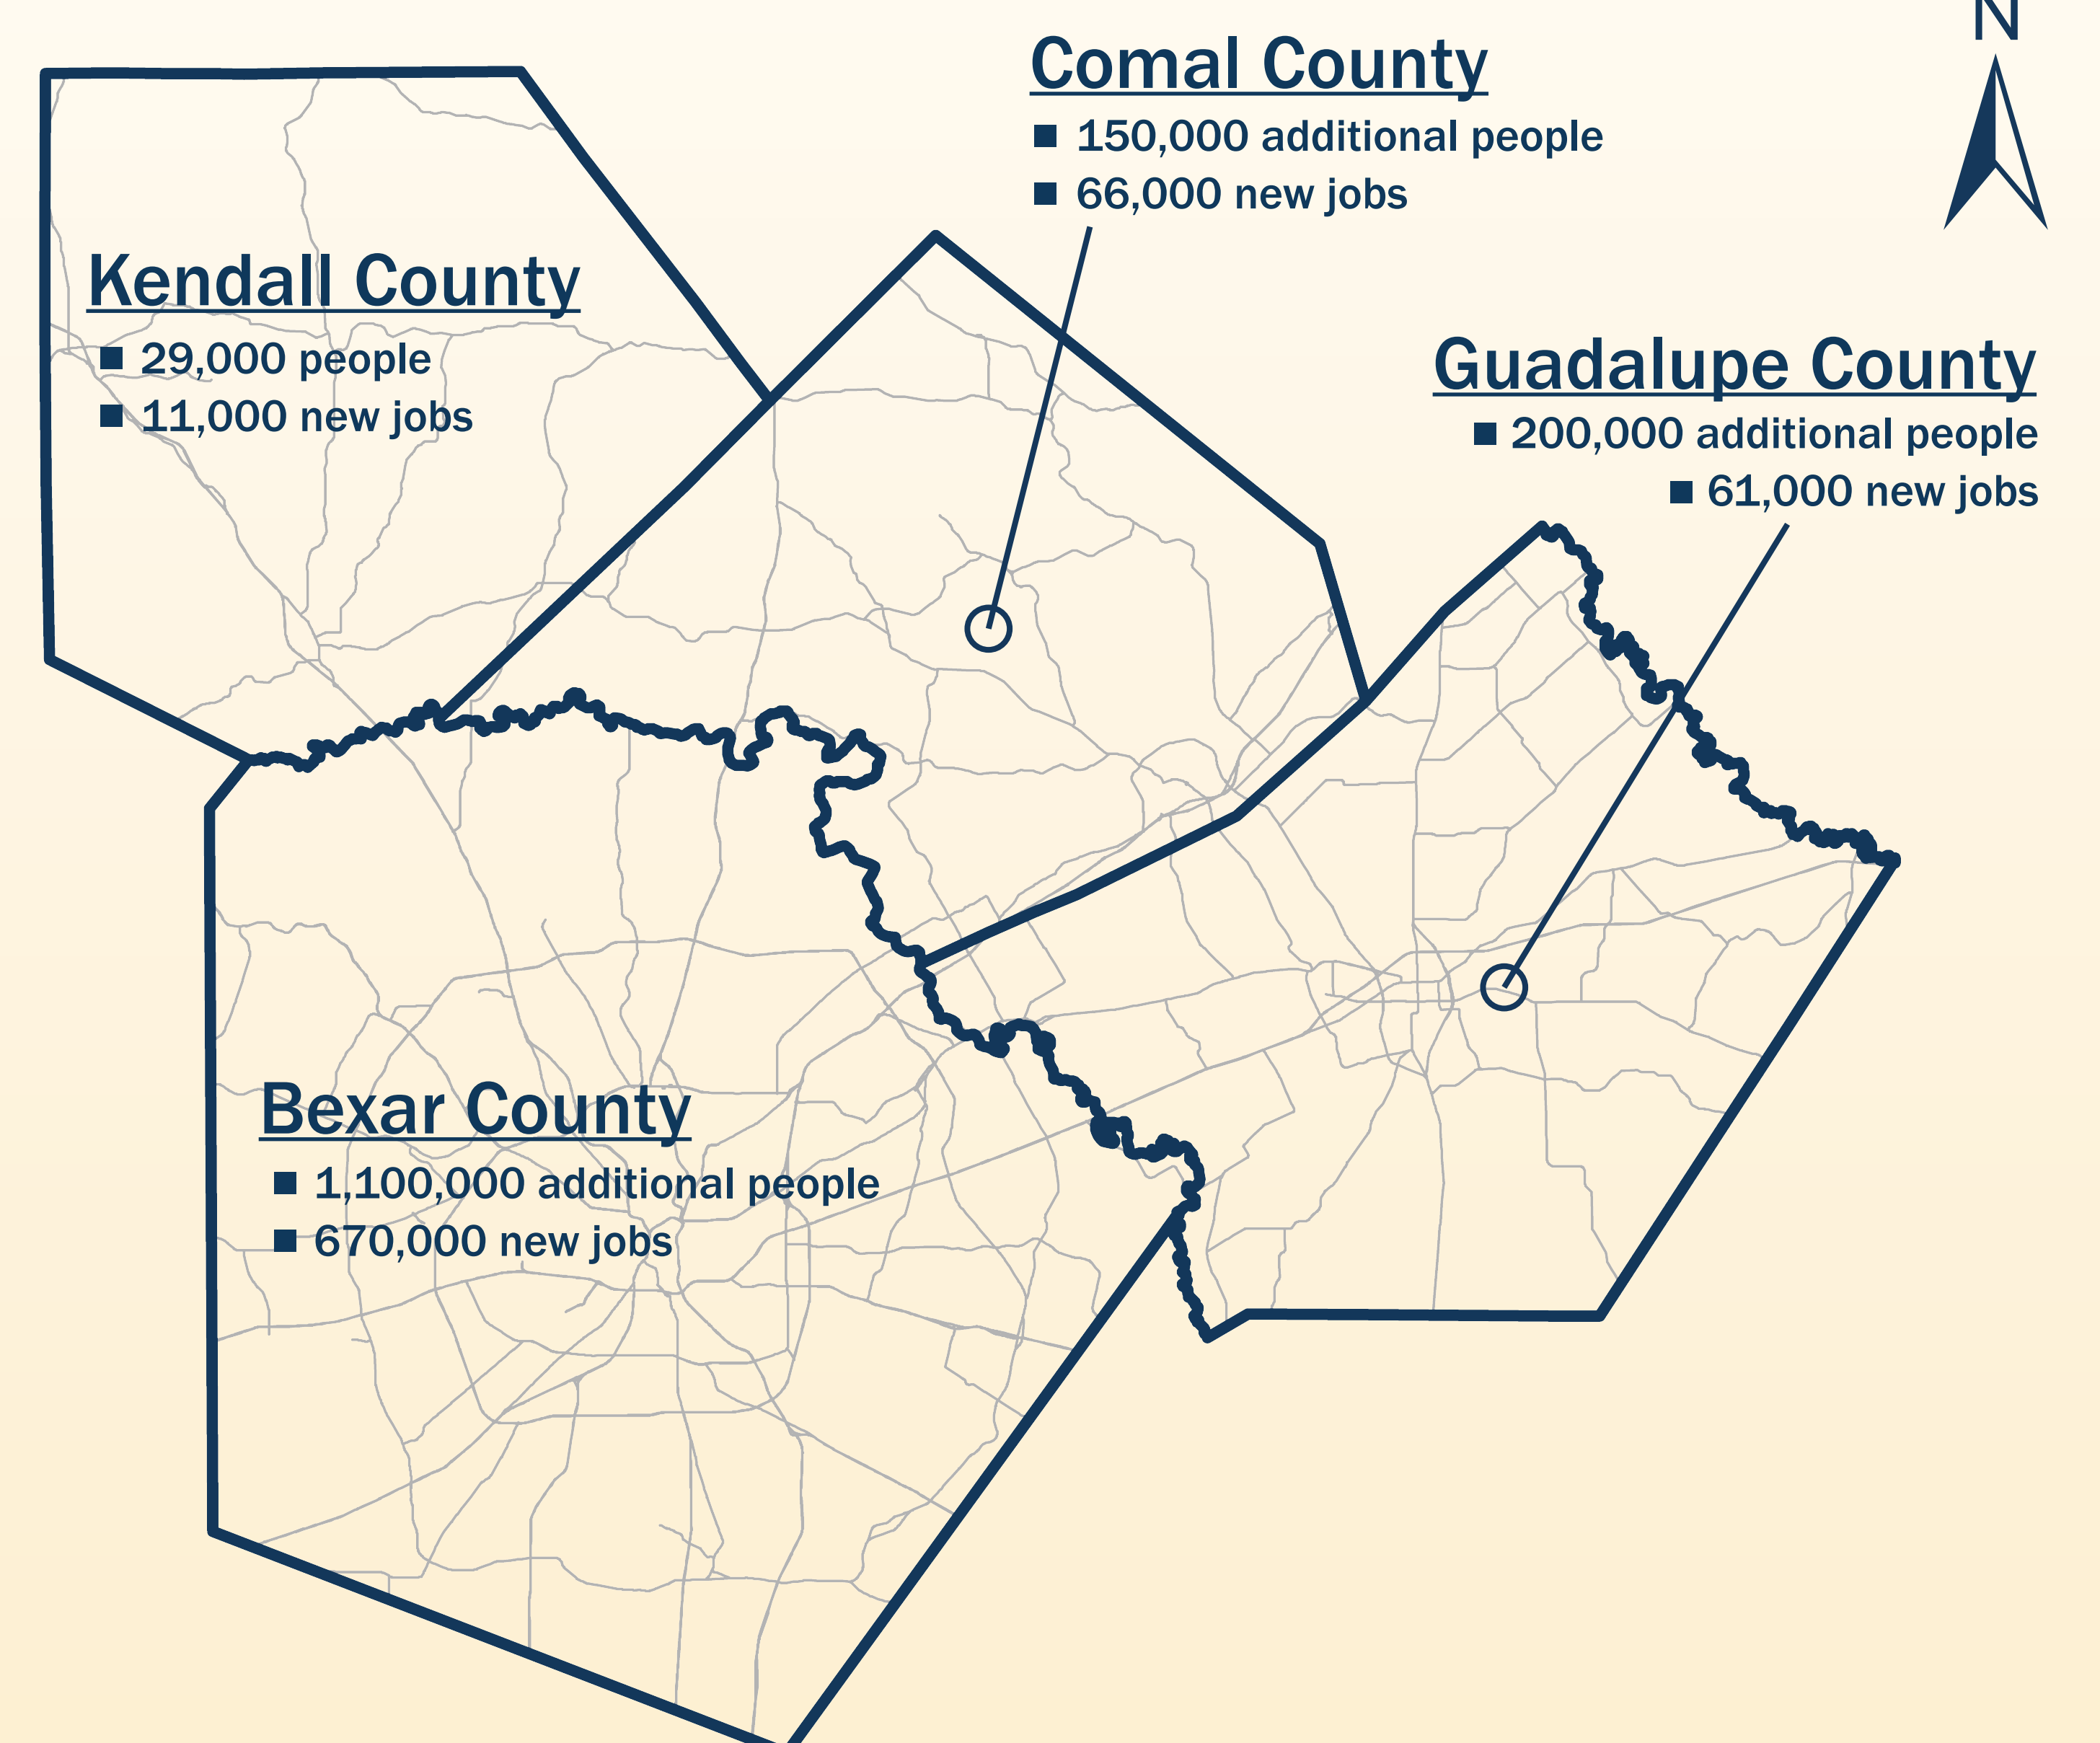

PM Peak Period (4 p.m. to 7 p.m.)

- Northbound SH 16 is the peak traffic direction
- Highest congestion observed from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. (peak hour)

Average Travel Times between I-410 Ramps & Quincy Lee

- Off-peak (free flow) takes about 14 minutes either direction
- Southbound a.m. peak hour takes more than 28 minutes
- Northbound p.m. peak hour takes more than 40 minutes

Regional Growth Forecasts for 2045

Notes:

- Year 2018 and 2045 traffic volumes are average daily traffic.
- Year 2045 growth is compared to 2015 employment and population data.
- 2045 demographic data from the Alamo Area Metropolitan Planning Organization (AAMPO) Mobility 2045.